SENESCHAL'S REPORT FOR MAY

Congratulations are due to the newest members of the Warriors of Unser Hafen, Milord Jean Phillipe and Milord Duncan of Ard Thir. These two noble gentleman were welcomed to our warriors for devoted service at Estrella. Unser Hafen appreciates their participation.

The Sand Skirmish held by Lord Jafar was also a success being attended by over thirty northern fighters as well as their Royal Highnesses Irel and Tess. We worked on a variety of tactics and heard classes from Duke Christopher and Sir Olaf. The Second Saturday Sewing Circle was also present and working at the Sand Skirmish and having a good time.

On another important note everyone in this Barony needs to congratulate Lady Drahomira and Milord Tamlin for their newest bounty and the youngest member of our Barony, Milady Alisha. HUZZAH! Also Lord Marshak the Golden Wolf became a proud parent on the same day, his addition being Milady Rowlan! WOW!

Final note everyone gear up for the Taster Tourney in May. It's a sure fire shoe in for a heck of a good time!!!

In Service to Barony and Empire,

TITVS CLAVDIVS SEVERVS

Unto the Barony of Unser Hafen,
Greetings from the Treasurer

As of our last transaction on April 16, we have $1798.59 in the treasury.

In service to the Barony and the Society,

Rosalind of Well Mark

From the Office of the Herald
May AS XXV

Unto the Populace of the Barony of Unser Hafen doth Lady Averick of Glen Rowany, Acting Barbican Pursuivant Extraordinary, send Greetings and Salutations.

The status of submissions of Gentles within the bounds of the Barony are as follows:

AT LAUREL:

Anastazia Winogrodzka- badge
Gunther der Wanderer- name and device
Medhbh O'Duibhdabhoireann of Clontarf- name and device
Sabhdh ni Dhonnabhain- device

AT KINGDOM:

Dirik Reverson- name and device
Hancarata Aethnen filia Cunneddae- badge
Madeleine de La Rochelle- name and device
Rosalind of Wellmark- name and device
Tamlene ap Guidgeon- name and device
Thorfinn Greybeard- name and device

I would like to say a resounding HIP HIP HUZZAH to Their Royal Heighnesses Irel and Tess for Their Ascension as heirs to the Throne of the Outlands.

CONGRATULATIONS are also in order for Lady Hancarata (also known as Llamrei) for receiving the Order of the Stags Blood at Crown Tournament and for Lady Liet who received her Award of Arms here in Unser Hafen at the Sand Skirmish presented by Their Royal Heighnesses for Their Majesties, Johann III and Monika, who presented the award originally at TFYC.

I would like to thank Lord Tore for nobly offering to herald Court at the Sand Skirmish when it looked like I might not make it. We need more such helpful and courageous folk as he. Please, when you call my house and I am not there, leave a message or I have no idea that you are trying to get in contact with me. You may call me for any questions on heraldry and please do so if you are thinking of submitting a name or armoury to the College of Heralds (or you can just call to talk, heralds are people too, you know).

In closing I would like to praise my m'lady Medhbh, who is the best deputy herald in the Known World,and is also available for information on heraldry.

In Service to the Barony,

Averick

Lady Averick of Glen Rowany,
Acting Barbican Pursuivant Extraordinary

From the Knight Marshal,
Greetings Unto the Populace of the Barony of Unser Hafen

Things have been fairly quiet on the fighting front this last month in Unser Hafen. The only notable event was Lord Ja'far's Sand Skirmish. Approximately thirty fighters turned out to learn about melee tactics. As a result of this event, I am planning to set up three man melee teams which will be semi-permanent. I would like to see these teams practice at least once every fighter practice which is now at 1:00 PM Sunday at Spring Creek Park.

There are two fighting events in the area this month. At the Inn of the Madwoman's Taster Tourney, we will compete for the great honor and privilege of being the new offical taster for the Inn of the Madwoman. I strongly encourage everyone not going to Grand Outlandish to go to Brigand's Bizarre. Sir Haroun comes up with very unusual battles that are not only a blast to fight in but also really fun to watch.

Since this month's report is kind of short, I am going to take advantage of it and climb up on my soap box. With the tourney season just around the corner, I would like the fighters to think about this. As I see it, there are two major schools of thought amoung fighters about why we fight. The first is that fighting is a sport just like any other and that the rest of the SCA exists only to support this sport. The only thing that matters to these fighters is winning.

The other school of thought realizes that although the Middle Ages were a violent time and fighting played a large role in the daily lives of the nobles we portray, they did not spend all their time fighting. To these fighters, fighting is only a part of the SCA, and that all the parts of SCA combine to help further the Dream for the individual. Everyone has a different definition of the Dream, but a safe broad definition would be a feeling of actually being there and being better (more noble, honorable, etc) than our mundane selves. Fighting in the SCA gives us an opportunity to be more chivalrous and honorable than we would be in real life because when you die in a SCA fight, you dust yourself off and move on to the next fight. Since we don't really die, there can only be positive consequences from acts of chivalry.

In conclusion, fighting is not the entire SCA, fighting and all the other parts of the SCA combine to allow us to live the Dream. Those fighters who treat fighting as a sport to be won at all costs and who fight with little or no chivalry are missing the fundamental ideal of the SCA. So, the moral to this story is that winning the fight is not as important as fighting with chivalry and honor. A reputation as a chivalrous fighter will go further than one as a thug. Thanks for humoring me.

From the Quater Master

I have finnished my project of gathering information of who has what, and what the barony has as far as baronial property. I am now keeping records of where that property is, and would appreciate you calling me if you loan or give that baronial property to someone else. This will save alot of headaches to all concerned.

In the following pages you will see a list of the books in the baronial Libuary. These books in the baroniallibuary will have to be signed out for. Which, I made a sign out sheet for the books and baronial property that people have. There are a number of nice books that I hope people will enjoy. They are housed at my place. Please call first if you wish to check one out.

Recently, someone has lost a swiss army knife at fighter pratice. Nothing else has been lost or reclaimed since then.

In your service

Lord Giunther, der Wanderer

WHERE: 528 S. Lincoln #16, Laramie, WY 82070-6360
WHY: To raise funds for the ARD TIMES
TIME: 5:00 P.M. - ?
AUTOCRAT: Lord Tod Coyle

On Friday 3 May 1991 I will be Autocratting a Carob Revel with the purpose of raising funds for the ARD TIMES. I ask those persons attending to bring either a dish or item made from/with chocolate to enter into the evenings Carob Competition. The more creative an idea is sure to be a winner.

There will be a variety of games during the evening for all to compete in, with prizes being awarded for each.

I am asking those in attendance to pay a site fee of $1.00 and bring a dish/item to enter into competition.

I shall be providing some "real food" to be consumed by those in attendance. Vanwood Manor is a Wet Site and you are asked to bring your own drinks. Due to a severe allergy there will be no smoking on site. Those who wish to partake of same are asked to do so out of doors.

CORONATION

May 4 & 5, 1991

Unto the most glorious populace of the Outlands, the Shire of Caer Mithin Halle sends greetings.

We are pleased to host the eleventh coronation of the Outlands, on May 4th and 5th, AS XXVI, 1991.

The site will be the Sheriff's Posse Arena and hall located 2 1/2 miles east of Carlsbad on HWY 62/180. The site is discreetly wet. Camping space on grass will be crowded, desert-like space is more plentiful. There is limited crash space available, as well as motels nearby.

The fee for the entire weekend is $10.00 (children under 12 half price). Reservations must be paid in advance and must be received by April 20, 1991. No reservations will be accepted after the 20th. Make checks payable to: SCA-Shire of Caer Mithin Halle, and send to Lord Thorfinn.

The feast will consist of five courses, and a more detailed menu will be in the next Herald. The shire plans to keep with our feast tradition — no one will leave hungry. A creative left-over brunch will be held on Sunday morning.

THE BARONESSES OF THE OUTLANDS ARE INVITED TO AN AFTERNOON TEA
IN THEIR HONOUR

Everyone is invited to share an aftenoon of relaxing revelry on the grass with as many of the Lady Baronesses of the Outlands who may chose to grace this event with their presence.

Punch, a variety of teas, and tea-time munchies will be served. This would be an excellent time to try out those receipes for cookies, scones and sweet breads, and bring them along to add to the sideboard.

Bring your board games, musical instruments (sorry, I don't think my neighbors could handle drums), pillows, ground covers, and folding chairs.

Bring your art. We are blessed with many artists in our area, but much of an artist's work is, by definition, solitary. Please share your art. Bring examples of your work to display. Indoor tables will be provided.

Bring a good story. Many SCA personas would never have partaken of "High Tea". Think of a (plausible) reason why your persona might have encountered such an event. There will be a small prize for the most "entertaining" reason.

A site fee of $1.00/person will be collected to benefit the Caerthan Building Fund.

Windkeep's First A'Fence
May 11-12

Please join us in a weekend of decadence. We will assemble in Hynds Lodge, west of Cheyenne in the Medicine Bow National Forest. Site will open at 10 am with armor inspection for the Decadent Rapier Challenge which starts at 11 am. There will also be a Rapier Melee Sunday. If there are heavy weapons participants, an interesting event is planned. There will also be activities for non-combatants. Lady Bianca wishes to hold a Theme Costume Contest (Italian any period Decadance).

Lady Aldith is planning a truely wonderful feast, and will be serving homemade cinnamon rolls for breakfast. The menu will be printed and available on the tables.

There is bed space for 29. These may be requested with your reservation. There is also camping space, and space on the floor of the lodge for those bringing their own sleeping arrangements. The fee for the weekend is $15.00 with smalls half. $2.00 of the fee will go directly to the Kingdom of the Outlands and is not refundable if you cannot attend the event. Send your reservations to Lady Aldith. Please include your society and mundane names, the shire or Barony of origin, and make out the check to SCA-Windkeep. The site is discreetely wet. Alcohol is permitted with meals, in the lodge only. Remember that helpers are needed, and enjoy the weekend free of fees.

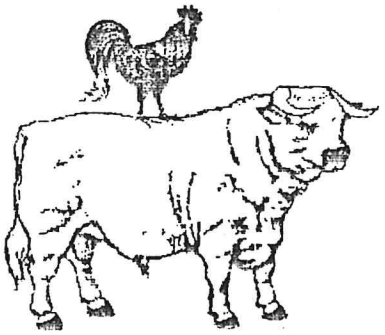
From Lady Aldith.....

Due to the grave illness of Rhys' father, I am putting our a call for help concerning the feast for First A'Fence. In the event that we are both in Caid, I need a few people to help assemble and/or cook the feast. Contact me ASAP. We also need servers and clean up people. Remember that those who help have the weekend free...

TASTER'S TOURNEY FOR THE INN OF THE MADWOMAN



Lord Titus' armour is getting a bit snug, so the time has come to choose a new "Official Taster" for the Inn of the Madwoman. To this end, the TASTER'S TOURNEY will be held on May 18 and 19. As usual with the Inn, there will be some insanity involved. Be Aware!

Lady Llameri has agreed to run the fighting events. She has some, ah... unusual battles in mind. We hear mutterings of battle-field food fights and other even stranger things.

Now - for qualifications for Taster: Do you know the words to "Teddy Bears Picnic"? Why not? Do you know the difference between a bay leaf and a celery leaf? You don't need to, I just wondered. But you may need to know other things, so study up! By the way, how DO you taste?

The event will be held at the KOA Campground, just north of Fort Collins on Hwy. 287, at Ted's Place. There will be signs. The site fee is $4.00 a night. THERE ARE HOT SHOWERS, CLEAN BATHROOMS, convenience store, and all that good stuff!

Lady Adrianna (of the Inn of the Madwoman) is feastocrat. The menu will be very simple:

1. Stew in bread bowls
2. Chicken in sauce, glazed carrots (?)
3. A dessert or twelve

The feast fee is $4.00. The listed menu is not binding on the cooks. THIS IS, AFTER ALL, THE TASTER'S TOURNEY. There may be surprises.

There will also be a "donation" (you donate money to us) breakfast served on Sunday morning: pancakes (assorted), syrups (also assorted), and whatever else we happen to think of. There will be LARGE pots of coffee. (The Madwoman is running this thing!)

Paid reservations are not required, but we would like a card or call, by May 10th, to let us know how many to cook for.

BRIGANDS BIZARRE
(May 21-26)

Brigands Bizarre is back -- it's bigger, it's better and it's more REMEMBR than ever before!!! Yes, the most talked about event (or so we hear) of the season has returned. For those of you who don't know; Brigands is the event where you bring your armor, you bring your tent, you bring your mug and, you leave your troubles at home. Our site is incredibly wet, has running water, toilets and plenty of shade. No ground fires (except the bardic pit) are allowed and dogs must be leashed at all times. Site will open at 6:00 pm Friday May 21th. Site fees are $7.00 per person, $3.50 for in-be-teens (8-15) and really smalls (7 and under) are free. The Barony of Unser Haven will host a feast consisting of a meat dish and rice pilaf. You are requested to bring a prepared side dish that can be shared with your fellow campers. Feast fees are $3.00 per person and really smalls are free.

Once upon a time the Merchants set out to deliver their treasure, carefully purchased and all legally obtained, to their castle in the Happy Mountain. Their journey would be long and their treasure in great peril. Two years in a row the Merchants have valiantly, though unsuccessfully, tried to reach their destination with their treasure intact.

Each year, the Merchants leave the city among cheers and flowers only to be set upon by those bizarre Brigands...

CARAVAN RAID 15 stick horses, 15 stick camels, foot soldiers must fight from their knees. Livestock is not to be used as a shield. If livestock or fighters are disabled, they must dismount and fight from their knees. Dead remain on the field.

The Merchants battle fiercely to the beach only to find that the Brigands have anticipated their attempt to escape by sea...

BATTLE @ BEACH All weapon styles permitted. Dead is dead and you remain on the field.

Both Brigands and Merchants take to the high seas where a vicious attack among ships takes place.

SEA BATTLE 8 boats which are not to be used as shields. If your boat breaks, you sink. You may attempt to board other boats. Drowned fighters wash up on shore (dead leave the field).

The battle strays to close to the shore of what appears to be an island, and all are shipwrecked...

ISLAND BATTLE A ribbon will signify the island. All who step over the line are messily devoured by mean, nasty sharks. Dead remain washed up on the field.

But, on second glance, the merchants find they have not been battling on a island after all. To the rear a swamp lends itself to land...

SWAMP SLOG All weapons styles permitted. All fighters on their knees. Dead remain in the muck.

Crossing the marsh lands, the Merchants find that the road runs through a deep, dark canyon...

HAPPY CANYON Wall sections will be set to form the canyon. Dead will just pile up in the canyon.

As it is late, and getting dark, the forces break off the fighting and rest for the night. But the next morning, the Merchants find that under cover of darkness, the Brigands have left. The Merchants fear that somewhere on the road ahead, an ambush awaits...

The Merchants climb the trail into the mountains, only to find that a landslide has wiped out a section of the trail. The ambush...

CHASM SPASM Ribbon will mark the boundaries of the chasm. It is a deep plunge into oblivion on either side. Stepping past the ribbon causes one to plunge to ones death, collect one token for a free drink and move farther up the mountain.

MOUNTAIN TRAIL The Merchants are once again attached on the trail curves around the bulk of the mountain.

Racing along the mountain trail, the Merchants find a bridge leading into a truly awesome tunnel...

BRIDGE BATTLE The bridge is repaired and better than before. 1 Brigand, 1 Merchant on the suspension bridge at a time. Blows are accumulated. Opponents may not be pushed off the ends of the bridge. Dead take a seat and watch the fun.

TUNNEL TURMOIL Yes, the tunnel is back! We hear the dead make the best shield wall so, dead remain where they fall.

The Merchants emerge from the tunnel and enter onto the plains where they engage the Brigands in a merciless chariot race...

CHARIOT CHASE 4 man horses who carry only a weapon(s), 1 charioteer who has any number of weapons/shields. Dead please leave the field or you'll get run over. These chariots are new, improved and, probably indestructible.

Finally, the Merchants have reached their castle in the Happy Mountain. The Brigands now not only have their eyes on the Merchants treasure but, their castle as well. The Merchants themselves have a few tricks up their sleeves now that they're home!!!

CASTLE SIEGE Merchants in the castle, Brigands outside. Castle is two stories tall and has a drawbridge which is the only way in for the Brigands. Merchants have combat archers in the turret. Brigands have slings which throw fire balls. Any fire landing on second floor burns down turret and kills the archers. Archers can also be killed by being hit by fire balls. Dead remain on the field for ambience. All dead archers must leave the field.

Will the Merchants (finally) emerge victorious and successfully bring their treasure to the people of the Happy Mountain? There is only one way to find out how this wonderful saga ends -- see you at Brigands Bizarre!!!

GRAND OUTLANDISH TOURNAMENT

May 24-27, 1991

My Lords, Ladies and Gentles, soon the Grand Outlandish Tournament will be upon us again, during the Memorial Day weekend, May 24-27. The event starts at noon on Friday and will continue until noon Monday.

Pre-registration is due by Saturday, May 11. Pre-registration fees are $9 for members, $12 for non-members; at the gate the fees will increase to $12 for members, $15 for non-members. Children are $0.50 per year of age. Proof of membership is required. Make checks payable to SCA-Barony of al-Barran, and mail to P. O. Box 27676, Albuquerque, NM, 87125.

The site will be the "Experimental Site" the same as last year. A map will be available next month. It appears that the fire situation will be much better than last year, however, stay tuned for updates.

The gate will be closed at sunset on Saturday to those who have not already registered. We have had several problems with mundanes. If you know you will not arrive until late, be prepared to be scrutinized at the gate and be prepared to show proof of SCA membership. The signs from I-40 to the site will be removed Saturday at dusk to discourage mundane partiers, so be forewarned.

The noise policy is - Drummers are to camp towards the east end of the camp, with no drumming using sticks after 12 pm. The quiet area will have no loud noise at all after 12 pm. Drummers please be responsible and we will ALL have a good time.

As always many tournaments and battles are being planned. A complete list and schedule will appear in next month's article. Also in the planning stages are fencing activities, archery, and a vast diversity of children's and non-fighting activities.

If you invite mundane guests, you should remember that you are responsible for them, including giving them guidelines on behavior and costumes. We cannot possibly loan costumes to guests at GOT, so please be responsible. (Hint: Contact your local hospitaller in advance if you don't have costumes for guests.)

Improper behavior ruins the event for everyone. If you do not behave as a lord or lady, you do not belong in the SCA. Those who engage in offensive behavior will be removed.

Remember to bring water, as there is limited water available at the site. With everyone's help and cooperation we will all have many happy tales about Grand Outlandish XVIII.

MAY UNSER HAFEN SALON

The May Unser Hafen salon will be held on Saturday, May 25, 1991, in the Everitt Plaza conference room located at 2900 South College Avenue, Fort Collins. This time Ms. Susan Frontczak, a professional storyteller, will be regaling us with the story of Thor's battle with the Ice King; as a bonus, she has also mentioned she will tell the tale of the Pied Piper of Hamlin and will be explaining a little bit about ballads and the bardic tradition. As always, a salon not to be missed.

As usual, please come between 7:00 and 7:30 p.m. for (quiet) gaming, music, conversation, and edibles because, as before, the salon will begin PROMPTLY at 7:30 p.m. and will last until approximately 11:00 p.m. (Finger foods, cheese, and wine will be provided.) Please don't forget to come in persona or to bring your garb, a goblet, a pillow to sit on (if you wish), and $2.00 for the site fee. Also, you are again encouraged to bring and share with the rest of us whatever tidbits of literature, history, or other information about your period/persona/area of expertise that you like.

For any questions about or ideas for this and upcoming salons, please contact Milady Flyte c/o Teri Cor, 200 Peterson, #4, Fort Collins, CO 80524-2958, telephone 493-8673 or 482-1056. Your comments and critiques are also appreciated, as this is your series of salons and we want to do everything possible to make them into what you want them to be.

UNIVERSITY OF CAERTHE This month, Mistress Kyriel of Windhover Cliff, a former falconer and one of the founders of the Colorado Hawking Club, will speak to us on "Falconry in the Middle Ages". This activity (a sport for the nobility, a practical hunting technique for the lower classes) has not changed greatly over the centuries. We will hear about the history of falconry as revealed in art, literature and practical guides.

We will meet on the fifth Wednesday of the month, May 29, 7:30 P.M., at Windhover Cliff, the home of Mistress Kyriel. Maps showing how to get to Windhover Cliff were printed in the July, 1990 Outlandish Herald and the May and July, 1990 Fortress. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Lady Amelia von Altburg, 750-0180, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004. If you are unable to find a map, call Mistress Kyriel, 530-1037, for directions.

For those who wish to come early, around 5:30, there will be a short hike on Windhover Cliff. Wear sturdy footgear. Bring a sack supper and potables if you wish. Coffee and tea will be provided.

LANCE TOURNAMENT

June 15, 1991

The companions of the Stag's Blood will be hos a Lance Tournament at the upcoming Outlands 5th y celebration on June 15th in the Barony of Dragonssp In times past, a Lance sometimes referred to a knight his retainers fighting together as a small unit. To recre this idea, the tournament entrants will be limited t members per team, only one of whom may be a mem of the chivalry.

A prize will be given to the members of the winn team. In addition, a Celtic style lance will be given to individual that most represents the ideas and ideal the Stag's Blood. Should you have any questi regarding the tournament, please feel free to call Ma Giovanni (303) 368-7832.

LLAMA LUST IV
HALOGALAND MANOR
JUNE 22 - 23

Spring is now upon us and our thoughts turn to...camping, fighting in tournaments, and singing in bardic circles. Come join us for Llama Lust IV on June 22 and 23 at Halogaland Manor, approximately 30 miles east of the Barony of Caerthe (Denver, CO). This is the fourth annual event hosted by Master Odan and Lady Alianna at their house in Strasburg, CO (Exit 310 on I-70). With about 10 acres of land, there is plenty of room for all. Last years lists included rattan croquette. Two teams form and take turns at being the wicket and trying to get the ball through the wicket. Fencers had their version of soccer, where the goalie sometimes had to defend the goal to the death. Shinai fighters played polo mounted on unicorns and dragons. This years lists promises to be more of the same (only different). The site will be open Friday for set up. There will be children's activities, chess, backgammon, merchants, and a feast Saturday night. The feast will be:

Muffins, Rolls, Butter, and Cheese on the tables
French Onion Soup
Course I: Cockatrice Legs (Turkey Legs)
Broccoli and Cheese
Course II: Kraken (Shrimp) Pilaf
Dragon Fish (Salmon) Spread and Crackers
Giant Crab Quiches
Course III: Dragon Bones (Barbecue Pork Ribs)
Applesauce
Dessert: Trifle
Cookies

Feast reservations now being taken. $8.00 per place between now and May 15. After May 15, $16.00 until June 1. Seating is limited to 70 reservations and there will be no off board seating (due to space limitations). Be sure to include Mundane Name, SCA Name, and address for each member of your feast party. Make checks payable to "SCA - Barony of Caerthe." Payment must accompany reservations as none will be accepted without money. Site fee is $2.00 per person for the weekend (not included in feast reservation). Also, there is no shade so plan to bring some. Merchant reservations invited but not required.

Banner ~~Tourney~~ Demo?

June 22, 1991

We have been contacted by the city of Cheyenne to please find a way of participating in their "Cheyenne Days" celebration. We had initially declined the offer earlier in the year due to the conflict with Llama Lust. We had a positive response in populace meeting to at least having a demo area with some of those who won't be attending Llama Lust maning the tables. If there is enough interest from others in the Kingdom, we have the option of expanding it to a fighting/dancing demo, or a tourney if there are enough fighters. We need to know now if any others will be interested in participating in this endeavor. We can also have a feast/revel connected with the demo if there is enough participation. Please contact Lord Thorman, or Lady Aldith IMMEDIATELY if you can be there. Remember that this is a direct request from the city of Cheyenne. They want us.

WARLORD TOURNEY

The Barony of Dragonsspine will host their annual Warlord Tourney June 29, 1991 on the campus of Colorado College (Tyger's Keep).

This year's tourney will be run best two out of three, triple elimination, draw weapon rounds. Shields larger than 24" round (or heater of equivalent size) are prohibited. Other rounds will include pole weapon, two handed sword, single sword, etc.. Fighting will begin at 10:00 am.

The highest placing Dragonsspinian will win the title of Warlord. Other prizes will also be given including Best Death and Most Chivalrous.

The feast following the Warlord Tourney is being held in appreciation of the populace of Dragonsspine for their years of service. The feast will consist of steak, baked potato and corn on the cob. Tables and chairs will be provided, as well as charcoal grills so that you may cook your steak to your liking (bring your own sauce). We request that you bring a side dish which may be shared with others.

Feast reservations made prior to June 1, 1991 will be $3.00 per person. Feast fees after June 1, 1991 will be $5.00 per person. Late reservations made after June 16, 1991 will be $7.00 per person. Limited steaks may be available at the site.

Site fee is $2.00 per person to benefit our Baronial newsletter, the Meassis Dragon. Make all checks payable to SCA-Dragonsspine.
